Engagement Announced to signed for their care are statements Howland S. Davis-Wedding in the Fall.

CHARITY DANCE AT RECREATION PIER

Social Service Bureau at Bellevne vide adequately for all the feeble-minded. Hospital Will Benefit by the Festivities.

Mrs. Robert R. Livingston, of 11 Washagron Square North, has announced the engagement of her only daughter. Miss Shippen Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howad Davis, of 204 Madison av. Miss Livbeston was introduced to society four ago and was chairman of the League sustaining committee that She is a granddaughter of Mr Mrs. E. N. Taller, a niece of T. Suffrom Tailer, of Edward de Peyster Livon and of Goodhue Livingston. She a direct descendant of Chancellor Rob Livingston, of Clermont, and of Philip Livingston, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Robert Livingston is her brother. Mrs. Livton and her son and daughter will soon take possession of their summer Northwood, Tivoli, which is sitsated on a portion of the Manor of Livgranted to the family by Queen The wedding will be held in the Davis graduated from Harvard in He is president of the West Side Juvenile Club, which provides entertainment for the boys and girls on the West His sister, Miss Sybil Davis, will be married to Charles Stevenson Davis, on June 27, at Plymouth, Mass.

33th st., have announced the engagement | Konta, Clarence H. Mackay, Hugo Reisef their second daughter, Miss Frances inger, Walter T. Rosep, Richard Schus-Rurr, to Alfred Ely, jr., of this city. Miss ter, Joseph B. Thomas, M. M. Van Burr, who was introduced to society three Buren, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and H. years ago, is a granddaughter of J. J. Whigham. Max Rabinoff is to man-Tucker Burr, of Boston, and of Joseph age the production in America. rench Page, of Philadelphia. Her sister, Miss Rosamond Burr, was married to Al-bert E. Kerr last October in Lawrence, cathedral. No curtain is used, but an ong Island, where Mr. and Mrs. Burr arrangement of lighting effects the eight we a country home. Mr. Ely is a son changes of scene. and Mrs. Alfred Ely, of 125 East With st. He was graduated from Prince- in London will be brought to America, 1966, and later from the Harvard as will the original cast, including Maria Law School. The wedding will take place Carmi. The orchestra and chorus, num in the autumn at Lawrence.

The marriage of Miss Alice Dix Ward- London, in 1911, "The Miracle" has been well, daughter of Henry Lansing Ward- given all over Europe. The average atwell, of 53 East 77th st., to Harold Otls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison Otis, will take place this afternoon in the Dr. Vollmoeller, author of "The Miracle," Church of the Holy Communion. bride will have no attendants. Lansing P Read will act as Mr. Otis's best man.

The members of the Sans Egal Club held another of their series of dances last light at the Plaza. The subscribers inude Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Mr and Mrs. Donn Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Tappin, Mr. and Mrs. DeLancey Nicoll. Mr. and Mrs. John Russell Pope, Mr. and Mrs. John Harsen Rhoades and Dr. and Mrs. Percy R. Turnure.

oe given to-night at the oth st. and North River, it of the Social Service Bu-Lellevue Hospital, Omnibuses ill run from Lexington av. and 60th st. very ten minutes, beginning at 9:30 o'clock and returning. The last one will eave the pier at 12:30 o'clock. Admission tickets are $2.50 each and supper tickets Boxes may be obtained from Mrs. Courtlandt Nicoli, 405 Park av. Several dinners will be given previous to the among the hostesses being Mrs. Linzee Blagden, Mrs. Francis M. Scott. Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mrs. Belmont Tiffany, Mrs. I. Wistar Kendall, Mrs. Benjamin Nicoll and I. Wistar Kendall. There will be exhibition dancing arranged by Mrs. E. Roscoe Mathews and Mrs.

Mrs. von Juch Wellman will sail for ernor general; Isaac Watts Brooks, of butter. ingland on May 21 on the President Lin- Torrington, Conn., deputy governor gen-

Jessie Fanshawe, arrived in town yester- treasurer general; Henry Snyder Kissam, day from their country place at Rumson, N. J., and are at the Plaza for a few John Chambers Hinkley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. William A. M. Burden will go to Madison, N. J., at the end of the month to be the guest for a short time of her mother, Mrs. H. McK. Twombly

Mrs. Hamilton Fish gave a bridge party yesterday afternoon at her home, $10 Fifth av., for her niece, Mrs. C. Bower IN STRENUOUS LIF

Mrs. Eugene Philbin and Miss Eugenie will return from Europe next

William Brewster, of 515 Madison av., entertained a party of fourteen last night at the weekly dance given at the Hotel life is in most cases the least effective and Biltmore by Mrs. A. M. Thackara, ir. Others who attended the dance were Mrs. Commerce, told the Brown University ambridge Livingston, Mrs. Charles G. students to-day in an address on "Ef-Avres and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Oliphant. fectiveness." HAWTHORNE LETTERS SOLD

"Both the hustler and the apostle of Epistle on Slavery Brings $43 at Sanders Sale. in their methods. They are to-day in the Nathaniel Hawthorne's letters brought same category with him who 'also ran.' the political correspondence of the late of human life, effort and materials in George N. Sanders, leader of the "Young commercial progress. "We deplore lives Democracy" from 1845 to 1861, Confederate lost in war, and have advocates of peace rommissioner to Europe during the Civil who are fluent in speech regarding the War and Consul General to London under horrors of strife," he said. "Yet while one must sympathize with those who have

One letter regarding slavery in Amer- lost dear ones in battle, are we as eloica, written at the United States Consul-ate in Liverpool March 14, 1854, was sold that are slain in industry? We mourn the to J. F. Drake for 243, the top price of nineteen of Vera Cruz, but in the first Monet and for Rodin statuary. the sale. Another from the same place, asking Mr. Sanders to advance Captain several times that number in the indus-J. Marshall 130, went to J. H. Benton tries of Massachusetts, and the list of Sin. C. W. Andrews gave the same of for another letter, written the same. The total of the sale was $225.

$245,000 FOR BLIND FUND

Committee Hopes to End $300,000 Campaign This Week. The committee of one hundred which is Baby Show and Exposition, Grand Central raging the $390,000 campaign for the New Palace.

York Association for the Blind, reported to meeting vesterday at the home of a meeting vesterday at the home of waging the $300,000 campaign for the New at a meeting yesterday at the home of 7 p. m. loseph H. Choate that $245,000 had been alsed. Two large gifts were acknowlloseph H. Choate that £45,000 had been alsed. Two large gifts were acknowlinged, one of $100,000 and the other of educed, one of sub-0,000 and the other of 25,000 ln both instances the name of the giver was withheld.

There is every assurance that the remaining £5,000 will be raised by the end table into a number of sub-committees with the idea of making individual appears to the very assurance that the remaining £5,000 will be raised by the end table into a number of sub-committees with the idea of making individual appears to the very kasteria and vice Versa. Actors' Fair The Actors' Fair The FEEBLE-MINDED A DANGER MRS. SAGE GIVES Choate Urges State to Care for Mentally Deficient.

After reviewing the inadequate facilities furnished by the present state hospitals, prisons, reformatories and charitable institutions, Mr. Choate said be thought the passage of the proposed bond issue would relieve the congestion, pro-insure a constructive policy of wide proportions remedying the effects of years of accumulated neglect, and eventually

Production for Madison son Square Garden.

Square Garden.

"The Miracle." Karl Vollmoeller's

Among the subscribers to the company to bring "The Miracle" to this country are Otto H. Kahn, Benjamin S. Guinness,

The interior of Madison Square Gar-

tion used by Reinhardt at the Olympia

Originally presented in the Olympia in tendance during the long run in Vienna was more than 2,000 at each performance.

the Governor's Room of the City Hall and elected officers. These were the guests

Colonel George Clinton Batcheller, gov ernor of the New York society, presided at the dinner, and Dr. William E. Fitch.

deputy governor, was toastmaster. Gen viving charter member, told his fellow protest against the pride shown by

The new officers are Colonel William

York City, secretary general;

N. Y., registrar general; Eli

Cary Sanger, of Sangerville, N. Y., gov-attorney general; Theodore Fitch, of Hiram Edward Deats, of Flemington.

Redfield Says No Public Grief

Marks Lives Lost in Business Conflict.

Providence, May 13 .- "The strenuous

"It is an infantile view of industry which measures its results by either the strenuousness have become back numbers

Secretary Redfield discussed the wants

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Aquarium.

duration or the extent of effort," he said.

N. J., historian general.

tan Hotel in the evening.

bering 500, will be secured here.

is now in New York.

struction in state institutions.

minded persons at large in this state and thousands more in institutions not de-Income of $100,000 Fund made in a letter which Joseph H. Choate To Be Used to Defend sent to members of the Assembly yesterday. The letter urged the passage Wild Life. of a bill submitting to the people the question of a bond issue for new con

LARGEST POPULAR DONATION OF KIND

Attempt at Washington to Kill Migratory Bird Law Induces the Gift.

save the state enormous sums of money Mrs. Russell Sage sent her check for by minimizing crimes by irresponsible $10,000 yesterday to William T. Hornaday s a contribution to the Permanent Wild Life Protection Fund. This gift brings 'THE MIRACLE' TO BE the total already subscribed to $10,000, of which almost all has been paid in.

Dr. Hornaday, who is a trustee of the GIVEN IN NEW YORK

fund and has power to expend its income at his discretion, places the "irreducible nimum" necessary to derive an income Original Reinhardt Mystery sufficient to carry out the work intended

It is believed that the attempt now being made in Washington to destroy the federal migratory bird law induced Mrs. eral migratory bird law induced Mrs. Corporation Counsel at $3,000 a year in ing of newspapers. Sage to make her large gift. The first the Brooklyn office, has resigned, but his The situation was wordless mystery spectacle, which has check from the income of this fund was place has not yet been filled. been one of the sensations of the year sent to California to be used to oppose a in England and on the Continent, will fight being made in that state for the rebe given in Madison Square Garden for peal of a law prohibiting the sale of a limited engagement, beginning the first game.

week in December. Max Reinhardt, of The subscriptions thus far received to the Duetsches Theater in Berlin, is the permanent fund show that $22,000 has producer of "The Miracle," and Engel-come from outside New York City; $17,225 bert Humperdinck wrote the music. More has been subscribed by women and about than 2,000 persons will take part in the $7,500 by sportsmen. Every person who presentation of "The Miracle," in Madisubscribes $1,000 or more becomes founder. So far there are nineteen Cadwalader Furniture and founders.

The banking trustees of the fund are Clark Williams, formerly State Superin-Louis Boissevain, Daniel Guggenheim, tendent of Banks, and A. Barton Hep Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Burr, of 28 East Edward S. Harkness, Mrs. Annie Lemp burn, manager of the Chase National Bank. The income from the fund only is many of the most distinguished art obexpendable: the principal cannot be jects left to the Metropolitan Museum of touched. The income will be used in Art by the late John L. Cadwalader, it fish, game preserves, bird sanctuariesand protective laws of all kinds.

Among the founders are George Eastman, of Rochester, who gave $6,000; An- museum's collection of English furniture Carnegie, Mrs. Frederick Ferris Thompson, of Canandalgua, and Henry display of Chelsea porcelain is second Ford, of Detroit, who gave $5,000 each The following have contributed $1,000 sington museums each: Miss Heloise Meyer, Lenox, Mass.; Schiff, William P. Clyde, Emerson McMil- Mr. Cadwalader, became museum proplin, George D. Pratt, Frederick G. Bourne, erty by his bequest. George F. Baker, Samuel Thorne and Dr. William H. Nichols, New York City, and ware, 47 small bronzes, Chinese, Japanese

Frederick F. Brewster, of New Maven. PATRIOTS ELECT OFFICERS This is believed to be the largest fund General Prime Says Order Was the protection of wild life, and, with the On the anniversary of the landing of $332,000 to the National Association of group; "Horse Surprised by a Lion," also John Smith on the Virginia coast the Audubon Societies, is the largest endowment fund ever established for such General Court of the Order of Founders and Patriots of America met yesterday in and elected officers. These were the guests FUTURISM WON'T BUTTER PARSNIPS the Old Grooves if They members that the order was organized as Want to Eat.

those members of the Society of Colonial A warning against the bogy of futurism Wars who congratulated themselves on was given by Carroll Beckwith to the cause it won't help you any. It's mechan-eral; the Rev. Edward Payson Johnson, will be women architects. At present any D. D., of New Brunswick, N. J., chaplain of you young women can get a position as W. S. Fanshawe and his daughter, Miss general; George Scranton, of Philadelphia, draftsman in an office. If you would apply yourselves to learning the practical work, you could be earning big salaries engagement of Pauline Frederick to play fore." in ten years. The trouble with women is in "Innocent," which he will produce next that they are too much interested in the fall. decorative arts. The masculine mind is have had to wrestle with the world so inson Friday evening, May 15, in the members will be taken in automobiles to ter F. Gilmore, of Holy Cross Church, in Mix, of New Haven, genealogist, and much longer. We have had to earn our Myrtle Room of the Waldorf-Astoria, the Pennsylvania Station, and thence by West 42d st.; Edward V., ex-Alderman, bread and butter so long that we have no Her sister, Josephine Kirkwood Robinson, special train to Long Beach, where lunchsentiment left."

Arthur Hoeber also gave the girls good IN STRENUOUS LIFE

The graduates were Myra Clift, Mabel Farrow Gregory. Johnson, Ethel Schiffmacher, Estelle son and Blanche Wallis. Scholarships sisted by Patricia Collinge. were awarded to Clara B. Miller, Mary E. Thompson, Mabel Staehr, Arline Wil efficient," William C. Redfield, Secretary of lamson and Eleanor Woodruff.

GERMANY OUSTS U. S. IN PARIS ART SALES

Purchases for American Account Show Falling Off-Roger Marx Collection Sells Well.

[By Cable to The Tribune.] Marx collection terminated to-day, the total amount realized for the three days' 2:20—To-day sale being $155,000. Prices indicate an increasing demand from Germany for modern French paintings and pastels of the schools of Manet, Degas and Claude the schools of Manet, Degas and Claude Monet and for Rodin statuary.

Repoirs and Toulouse Lautrecs also went to Berlin and Cologne. Degas's pastel drawing, "La Toilette," was bought by Durand Ruel, after sharp bidding by the Berlin dealers, for $22,000. Experts consider the prices reached a fairly good average. It was noted that purchases for the United States were smaller in volume than those for Germany, which to-day is the best customer at all Paris art sales. The munici-

Actors' Fair Opens Saturday. The Actors' Fair, under the auspices of the White Rats, will be held at the clubhouse of the White Rats on May 16 2:15. to 23. This fair is in aid of the charity fund of the recognized actors' associa-

REDFIELD AIDS WORKERS DEMAND IS SMALL Oabinet Officer Gives $1,000 to $10,000 FOR GAME Industrial Education.

The National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education announced yesterday a contribution of $1,000 from William C. Redfield, Secretary of the Department of Commerce, toward the fund of $100,000 which it is trying to raise by Friday for the training of workers. The total amount pledged is $26,277.

The society also announced that a factory school for dress and waist industries will soon be established here. It has prepared a tentative trade agree ment between the Manufacturers' Asso ciation and the unions with a view to training workers.

POLK FILLS $5,000 POST Melville J. France Made Assistant Corporation Counsel. Corporation Counsel Polk announced esterday the appointment of Melville J. France as Assistant Corporation Coun-

New York Law School, in 1902. The place pays $5,000 a year.

MUSEUM ACQUIRES NEW COLLECTIONS

Porcelain Placed on Exhibition.

With the placing on view yesterday of nation-wide campaign work for the de- was announced by Edward Robinson, difence of wild life-birds, mammals, game rector of the museum, that eventually it der collection exhibited together.

Through Mr. Cadwalader's bequest the is double in size and importance, and the only to that of the British and South Ken-

The marble bust of George Washington Max Fleischmann, Cincinnati; Mrs. J. S. by Giuseppe Ceracchi, executed in Phila-Kennedy, John D. Archbold, Mortimer L. delphia in 1795, and loaned for years by

In the collection are 75 pieces of Chelsea Anthony R. and John Dryden Kuser, of and Indian, almost all of eighteenth centernardsville, N. J. Those who contribute workmanship: 32 pieces of Chippentury workmanship: 32 pieces of Chippentury uted $500 are Cleveland H. Dodge and dale furniture, dating from 1740 to James Speyer, of New York City, and most of it mahogany; 40 snuffboxes, European, early seventeenth to early nineteenth century, as well as some sculpture, ever raised by popular subscription for including "Theseus Fighting the Minotaur," by Antoine Louis Barye, a bronze John Paul Jones, by Antoine Houdon. Among recent acquisitions announced yesterday is a panel by Sano di Pietro, The Queen of Shebn and King Solomon. "The Cloud," a painting by Leon Dabo, has been secured by the museum from the artist in exchange for "The Rocket," a cents.

American school recently acquired by pureral Raigh Earle Prime, the only surical skill that it going to earn bread and Miss Caroline Ransom, of the museum staff, include between 25,000 and 30,000 "I look forward to the day when there hieroglyphs in the texts and several thousand figures in the scenes depicted.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

An interpretation of "Peg O' My Heart" less apt to be ornamental, because men will be offered by Miss Martha Lee Rob- the soprano.

Douglas Fairbanks, late star of "The dinner. Baumhackl, Helen Hammond, Antoinette New Henrietta," will present at B. F. Lorence, Elizabeth Hubbard, Helen Craig, Keith's Palace Theatre next week, for Harriet Klamroth, Mabel Staehr, Mildred the first time in New York, a new play- the first time in New York, a new play- let by Alice Leal Pollock. He will be as-

Time Curtain Rises To-day

.....48th Street

STOCK AND ONE WEEK THEATRES. pality of Paris purchased a pastel por-trait of a young girl by Mary Cassatt

STOCK

8:15—Merely Mary Ann......Academy
Alma Wo Wohnst Du......Royal
The Lattlest Rebel......West End VAUDEVILLE HOUSES.

BURLESQUE. Mats.Daily. Evening.

FOR BETTER BOOKS

Europe Surpasses U. S. in Taste, the Booksellers Are Told.

Norway Cited as Paradise for the Trade-Imitation of Plan Is Urged.

The question of why the cry for better literature in this country is not answered received a reply yesterday at the second Year's Night," 1878; "Family Fortunes, day of the hooksellers' convention. The sel in charge of the Brooklyn Bureau of demand is only theoretical and is not crethings here which distract attention things here which are also at the distract attention things here which attention the distract attention the distract attention things here which are also attention the distract attention Sanders Shanks, who was an Assistant | cheaper magazines and the hurried read- | lections of Fifty Years," 1910. Her home The situation was discussed yesterday by Richard B. G. Gardner, of the Publishers' Co-Operative Bureau. The bureau has been created during the last year by twenty-three publishers of New York, Boston and Philadelphia to stimulate a greater interest in books and to provide the market with better distribution facili-Statistics have been compiled by the bureau, from which Mr. Gardner drew the ance Co., a heavy stockholder in "The conclusions that 83 per cent of the poten-tial readers and buyers of books in this country are unable to get new books as published or, in many cases, even adequate service from their booksellers in and two babies, he contracted a cold. regard to books in which their interest Upon arrival here a physician was called, has been created. This charge of not cultivating the existing market roused the ire of many mem-beans," as one member phrased it, and was planned to have the entire Cadwala- that practical suggestions on how to do it were not forthcoming. 'Fewer and better books," the slogan of the retailers, is not likely to be realized next year or the year after, in the opinion of some of them. The reason given was that many books are printed at the expense of the authors and consequently cannot be eliminated by the pub-W. H. Arnold, of the H. B. Claffin Com-New York, read a paper on "A Booksel-ler's Paradise." The paradise is Norway, before which all who wish to become booksellers appear. In Norway a young man who chooses bookselling as a vocation must serve four years as an apprentice and eight as an assistant. The board then examines him Issued first in paper covers. When a book ing costs about 35 cents and the leather 60 from indigestion.

"The Cloud" is considered a better example of his work. Another painting of the list prices and are supplied only by the retail bookseller. School books, bound in and two daughters. beards or in cloth, are supplied to the Recent purchases include six miniatures public primary schools by the retail book-ward Greene Malbone.

In "The Museum Bulletin," out to-day, paper covers is from 60 cents to $1. Nor-Captain Wilson had been prominent in ness in this country lay in imitating the Norwegian system. The publishers will do their utmost to block the change, according to Mr. Arnold, in fear of a decrease in In the afternoon an executive session was held. In the evening the convention A. H. Woods announced yesterday the went to the Hippodrome to see "Pina-will sing Irish songs. Miss talks given. The train returns at 5 p. m. Hotel Astor, to be followed by a farewell

TO SIR C. MARKHAM

Him a High Compliment-Reaffirms His Discoveries. Bridgetown, Barbado:, May 13.-Colonel discovery of an unknown river in Brazil serious operation. by saying that the British geographer had unconsciously paid the greatest possible tribute to what he had done. He declared the best existing maps to be utterly wrong in regard to all this part of South Amerruena affluents The mountains given on the maps were positors after the crash came.

ascended a mountain the maps indicated Graduating from the City College, he a valley. The lower part of the river, said the

The Yellow Ticket ... Eltinge Panthea ... Booth Sari ... New Amsterdam Margaret Anglin. Liberty Too Many Cooks ... Sth Street Kitty Mackay. Comedy Peg o' My Heart ... Cort Seven Keys to Baldpate ... Galety To-day ... Sth Street The Dummy ... Hudson A Pair of Sixes ... Longare A Scrap of Paper ... Empire S:45—The Truth ... Little ... Little ... A theatre party was given to Miss Florence Cerken and her bridgi attendants.

ence Gerken and her bridal attendants at the Thirty-ninth Street Theatre yesterday afternoon by Miss Linda E. Stephenson. A tea followed at the Knickerbocker Hotel. Those present were Miss Irene Gerken, Miss Lucie Elkin, Miss Aimee L. Sullivan, Miss Flora Autenreith, Gladys Eustace, Miss Loretta Carroll and Mrs. F. W. Stephenson as chaperone. The wedding of Miss Gerken and Leopold

OBITUARY.

MRS. ISABELLA FYVIE MAYO. London, May 12.—Mrs. Isabella Fyvie Mayo, a Scottish novelist, died to-day at Isabella Fyvie, of purely Scottish origin, was born in London on December 10, 1843, and in 1870 was married to John Ryall Mayo, a lawyer, who died in 1877. Some years before her marriage she began writing books, chiefly novels, and newspaper and magazine articles. For the latter class of work she generally used the pen name of "Edward Garrett." One of her est important works was "Old Stories MANY DISTRACTIONS and Sayings of Many Lands," which was published in six volumes. She also edited and annotated the latest works of Count Tolstoy. Other works were "Occupations of a Retired Life," 1868; "The Crust and the Cake," 1869; "Seen and Heard," 1871; "Premiums Paid to Experience," 1872; "Crooked Places," 1873; "By Stall Waters," 1874; "Doing and Dreaming," 1876; "The Capel Girls," 1877; "The House by the Works" and "One New 1880; "Mrs. Raven's Temptation," 1881; "Her Object in Life," 1882; "At Any demand is only theoretical and is not crestrated at the book counter by customers, to succeed Edward Riegelman, who has sent in his resignation, to take effect on May 23.

Mr. France, who lives at 1714 East 14th st., Brooklyn, has been active in civic things here which distract attention from 182. The Object in Life, 1832; "At Any Cost." 1834; "The Mystery of Alan Grale," 1885; "Yohn Winter," 1885; "Not by Bread Alone," 1890; "Her Day of Service," 1892; "A Black Diamond," 1893; was at Old Aberdeen. FRED C. KEENEY.

(By Telegraph to The Tribt Santa Barbara, May 13.-Fred C. Keeney. well known in New York business circles, died at his winter home here today, from an attack of grip. He was president of the New York Elevator Co., director of the Prudential Life Insur-Brooklyn Eagle." and was associated with many other enterprises. His death was unexpected. Two weeks ago, while coming here from the Fast with Mrs. Keeney and had been in attendance ever since.

He was born in Brooklyn, July 21, 1865. The funeral will be held Sunday, bers of the association, who said mere and burial will be made in the local statistics were "not worth a hill of cemetery.

JEREMIAH WOOD DIMICK.

Jeremiah Wood Dimick, fifty-two years old, a retired dealer in rugs and tapes-tries, died at the Hotel McAlpin early yesterday morning after a long illness. Mr. Dimick was graduated from Columbia Law School, and up to retirement from business was the senior member of the firm of J. W. Dimick, of 140 Fifth av. The firm was established by his pany and the Syndicate Trading Company, father in 1840. His one thousand-acre stock breeding farm of Holstein cattle. Woodcrest, at Rifton, Ulster County, is where the system of distribution has been well known. Some of his cattle were bought by the commission sent perfected by a national board of directors, some years ago from New Zealand to study cattle breeding. He leaves a wife and a daughter.

JOHN HOWE.

Nutley, N. J., May 13 .- John Howe, on his knowledge of books and requires sixty-eight years old, fied to-day at his home, 225 Prospect st. He was presi-"All publications," said Mr. Arnold, "are dent of the Bank of Nutley, secretary of the firm of George La Monte & Son, huyer decides to place permanently in his paper manufacturers, and formerly a library a book he has bought in paper he Freeholder. Mr. Howe attended the gives it to his bookseller or to a binder to bankers' convention at Atlantic City on be put in cloth or leather. The cloth bind- Friday, and after the dinner became ill

Mr. Howe was born in Somerset, Eng-"Retail prices ere always net; there are land, and came to this country in 1872. Public He organized the Kingsland Paper Mills by Alice Beckington, Lucia Fairchild seller at a discount of 10 per cent, and the schools supply them to their pupils for four years old, a Civil War veteran and the most part free of charge.

Combs Hills, Helen M. Turner and Ed. "The usual price of a book of fiction in terday at his home in Mount Vernon. member of their family had ever married into a patriot family. Then it was decided that the time had come for the founding of a patriot society.

The new officers are Colored Wilson at the class and count of the founding of a patriot society.

The new officers are Colored Wilson at the class day exercises yesterday afternoon.

This futurism is all right for an old man like me to amuse myself with," he said, "but you keep away from it. You mustn't let it enter into your work by the year by Edward S. Harkness The content of the price of any book is allowed until five by the year by Edward S. Harkness The content of the price of any book is allowed until five by the price of an bravery by General Sherman. He was a retired wholesale glass merchant of Manhattan. He leaves a wife, son and a daughter.

HUGH GILMORE.

Hugh Gilmore, sixty-five years old, one of the oldest inhabitants of Yorkville. This morning the executive session will died from apoplexy at his home, 318 East be continued until II, when the convention 86th st., yesterday. He was a retired adjourns to Funk & Wagnails' to inspect truckman and contractor. He leaves four publishing house. From there the sons and two daughters, the Rev. Wal-22d District; John, Hugh, jr., Mrs. Chrissoprano, and Mary Dan Harbeson, mezzo con will be served and a few informal topher T. Relly and Mrs. Arthur Falk. A solemn high mass will be said in the soprano, will sing Irish songs. Sins this given the Carlo at the Lady of Good Council, in West 20th st., on Saturday morning. His son will offi-

THE REV. P. J. GILMARTIN.

Rome, May 13.-The Rev. Patrick J. Gilmartin, of St. Aloysius's Roman Catholic Church, West 132d st., New York, died suddenly here to-day.

Church in this city. On April 21 he left for Rome, and had hoped to visit Ireland, where he was born. He was forty-three Theodore Roosevelt to-day replied to Sir years old and had been ordained thirteen Clements R. Markham's criticism of his years. Two months ago he underwent a lecturer, dropped, dead from apoplexy last night while walking in front of 131 ica and said that they made mistakes as Stanton st. He had a large account in to the courses of the Gyparana and Ju- the savings bank run by Henry Slegel, and was a member of a committee of de-> moved to Rochester, where he accumulated a fortune in mechanical inventions. JOHN M'LELLAN.

ABRAHAM N. BRESEL.

John McLellan, seventy-three years old, a pioneer in the lithographic business, died suddenly from apoplexy yesing. He was born in Edinburgh, and came to the United States sixty-five years ago. Until last year, when he retired. he was a member of the firm of Donald LULKEN, Anna, 103 Hopkins ave., May 12, aged 60. ing. He was born in Edinburgh, and of New York. He leaves three daughters.

MRS. THOMAS BLACK.

widow of Major Black, of the 66th Regiment, British army, and mother of Harry S. Black, of the United States Realty and wedding of Miss Gerken and Leopoid S. Black, of the United States Realty and The Woodlawn Cemeters.

The Woodlawn Cemeters.

The Woodlawn Cemeters.

Improvement Company, died last evening at Cobourg, near here.

POLICEWOMEN FOR BOSTON

Appointment To Be Requested

by Municipal League. Boston, May 13.—Cabmen here charge only 50 cents to take you from the rail-road station to a hotel, and in a poly-syllable town it is difficult to see the need syllable town it is difficult to see the

for more policemen under such circum-But the Woman's Municipal League at its next meeting will, for all that, urge Mayor Curley to appoint some women policemen. It is to be assumed that in Boston they will be called policewomen.

Chappell, Louise G. Sandford, Frederick Dimick, Jeremiah W. Schieffelin, Anna M. Dowd, Michael Fisher, John W. Hopkins, Willard F. Monteath, Sara J. Periam, Fannie J. Williams, Edw. H. Wilson, William, Jr.

CHAPPELL—Suddenly, on Monday, May 11, 1914, at her late residence, 7 East 55th st., Louise Graves, wife of Dr. Walter F. Chappell, and daughter of the late Arthur B. and Jane Riker Graves, in her 35th year. Funeral will be held at the Church of the Incarnation, 35th st. and Madison ave., on Thursday, May 14, at 11 a. m.

DIMICK—At the Hotel McAlpin, New York City, May 13, 1914, Jeremiah Wood Dimick, of Rifton, N. Y., in his 52d year. Funeral private.

PERIAM—At East Orange, N. J., May 12, 1914, Fannie Jube, widow of Joseph Periam, Jr., and daughter of Mrs. Will-iam U. Jube. Funeral services will be held at her late home, 30 North Ar-lington ave., on Thursday, May 14, at 3:15 p. m.

at 8:45 octock. Interment private.

SCHIEFFELIN—At the Ansonia Hotel, Tuesday morning, May 12, Anna Marie, widow of the late Edgar Schieffelin and daughter of the late John Bant, of London. Funeral services at St. Paul's Church, East Chester, N. Y., Friday, May 15, 11 o'clock. Carriages will be int waiting at Mount Vernon Depot uponthe arrival of the 10:05 New Haven train from Grand Central Station.

STARKEY—On Tuesday, May 12, 1914, at his residence, 379 Washington av., Brooklyn, Clinton Walworth Starkey, beloved husband of Ritle Lott Johnson. Funeral services at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. James F. Scholes., 198 East 18th st., Flatbush, Thursday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. Relatives and friends invited. Interment private. Connecticut papers please copy.

WESTERVELT—At Bloomfield, N. J., on May 13, 1914, Madeleine Mogia West-ervelt, wife of the late John Wester-velt, in her 82d year. Funeral ser-vices from the home of her son-in-law, John Newton, 455 Franklin st., on Fri-day, May 15, at 2:30 o'clock.

WILLIAMS—May 12, 1914, Edward H. Williams, in his 89th year. Services at his late residence, 89 Hillyer st., East Orange, N. J., Thursday, May 14, at 3 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

WILSON—At Mount Vernon, N. Y., May 13, 1914, Captain William Wilson, ir., 33d Regiment, N. J. Volunteer Infan-try, aged 73 years. Funeral services at the Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon, Friday, May 15, at 3:40 p. m. Interment private.

MANHATTAN AND THE BRONX GLASTAETER, Norman, 1976 Honeywell ave., The Bronx, May 12, aged 64. Funeral to-day, 19 a. m. JONES, Ida. 225 East 127th st., May 11, aged 46. Funeral to-day, 2 p. m. LANG, Anna, 203 East 69th st., May 11, aged 50. Funeral to-morrow, 2 p. m.

STEELE, Jacob, 200 West 64th st., May II, aged 66. Funeral to-morrow, 2 p. m. THOMPSON, John, 221 West 148th st., May 12, aged 34. Funeral to-morrow,

BROOKLYN. COULTON, Marie C., 683 Lafayette ave. May 12, aged 16. Funeral to-morrow

FITZGERALD, Patrick. 9 Henry st., May 12, aged 18. Funeral to-morrow, 2:30

Says British Geographer Has Paid Father Gilmartin was first assistant rec- HAMMOND. Thomas F., 1201 68th st. Him a High Compliment tor of St. Aloysius's Roman Cathelle May 12, aged 50. Funeral to-day, KNAUSE, Benjamin F., 1076 Bushwick ave., May 12, aged 7L Funeral to-day LOEBER, Charles H., 1717 71st st., May 12. Funeral to-day, 8:20 p. m.

Abraham N. Bresel, an inventor and MURPHY, Joseph, 179 Russell st., May

LONG ISLAND. The mountains given on the maps were according to the colonel mostly imaginary. He said that while his party had accorded a mountain the maps indicated Graduating from the City College, he CORNELL, Florence M., at Springfield, May 11, aged 22. Funeral to-day, May 11, aged 22. Funeral to-day, May 12.

NEW JERSEY. BENJAMIN, Robert J., 347 Johnson ave. Jersey City, May 12, aged 2

SAMPSON, Charles Van Etten, 513 Van Vorst place, Union Hill, May 12. Funeral to-day, 18 a. m. Ontario, May 12.—Mrs. Thomas Black, May 12. Funeral to-morrow, 2 p. m.

CEMETERIES.

DOWD—On Wednesday, May 12, Michael Dowd, after a lingering illness. Funeral at Cathedral, Fifth av., Friday morn-ing, May 15, at 9 o'clock. Interment, Calvary Cemetery. FISHER—At 70 West 49th st., New York, on Tuesday, May 12, 1914, John Worrell Fisher. Funeral services at the Church of the Heavenly Rest on Thursday, May 14, at 3 p. m. Philadelphia papers please

HOPKINS—At White Plains, N. Y., May 12, Willard F. Hopkins, son of Frances and the late Elliah T. Hopkins, age, 37 years. Funeral services at his late residence, 23 North Broadway, White Plains, N. Y., Friday, May 15, at 3 p. m.

MONTEATH—Suddenly, in Englewood, N. J., Monday, May 11, 1914, Sara J., daughter of the late Peter and Sara Woolverton Monteath, of Albany, N. Y., Funeral services at the Madison Avenue Reformed Church, Albany, N. Y., Thurs-day, May 14, at 2:39 p. m.

SANDFORD—At Plainfield, N. J., on Monday, May 11, 1914, Frederick, husband of Ida Core Sandford, aged 42 years. Services at his late residence, 112 Sycamore ave. North Plainfield, on Thursday, May 14, at 10 a. m. Carriages will meet train leaving foot of Liberty st., N. Y. C. (C. R. R. of N. J.) at 8:45 o'clock. Interment private.

TEPPER—At his home, Wyoming, N. J., on May 13, 1914, Frederick W. Tepper, son of Frederick and Marianna Tepper, in his 42d year. Funeral, at St. George's Church, Maplewood, N. J. Friday, May 15, at 3 o'clock, on arrival of Lackawanna train leaving Hoboken at 1:51 p. m.

MILITARY ORDER OF THE LOYAL LEGION, Commandery State of New York.—Companion William Wilson, fr. Captain United States Volunteers, died May 13, 1914. Funeral Friday, May 15, at 3:40 p. m., Church of the Ascension, Sidney and Park avs., Mount Vernon, N. Y. Companions will attend. By order of Paymaster General Edwin Stuart, U. S. N., retired, Commander, Brevet Lieutenant Colonel William S. Cogswell, U. S. Vols., Recorder.

ROSS, Mary Louisa, 606 West 122d st. May 12.

WERNER, Emma. 507 East 138th et. May 11, aged 27. Funeral to-day, 3

FOX, Delia, 842 Union st., May 12. Funer-

HENNESSY, Mary J., 457 52d st., May 12, aged 61. Funeral to-day, 10 a. m. KEARNS, Charles R., 830 President st., May 12, aged 62. Funeral to-morrow.

NOLAN, Cornellus, 55th st., May 12, aged 42. Funeral Saturday. PIKE, Cornella E., 1530 East 15th st., aged 35. Funeral to-day, 8 p. m.

MATTHEWS, Joseph C., of Elmhurst, at German Hospital, in Manhattan, May 12, aged 54.

BUINDO, Maria, 284 Palisades ave., West Hoboken, May 12, aged 60. terday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. CURZON, John. 18 2ld ave., Paterson, Milton F. Duflocq., 68 Barclay st., Flush-May 11, aged 59. Funeral to-day, 2:30 son Brothers, lithographers. He was a RADONSKI, Frederick W., 202 Palisades charter member of the Caledonian Club ave., Town of Union, May 12, aged 25.